

FELIXSTOWE BOOK FESTIVAL 16th-25th June 2023

Books by the sea. Events for adults and children.

www.felixstowebookfestival.co.uk

- FelixstoweBookFest
- 🕑 @felixstowebool
- 🙆 felixstowebookfestiva

SATURDAY 24 JUNE

PALM COURT Harvest House Cobbold Rd, Felixstowe IP11 7SP

Saturday 24 June 10am-11am Rachel Joyce: Maureen Fry & the Angel of the North

© Pal Ansen

Ten years ago, Harold Fry set off on his epic journey on foot to save a friend. Now, after an unexpected message arrives from the North, his wife Maureen has her own pilgrimage to make.

Saturday 24 June 11.30am-12.30pm Robin Ince: Bibliomaniac: An Obsessive's Tour of the Bookshops of Britain

The Infinite Monkey Cage presenter Robin Ince explores his lifelong love of bookshops and books. If you are a book lover please don't miss this hugely entertaining session.

Saturday 24 June 1.30pm-2.30pm Esther Freud and Susie Boyt

Festival patron Esther Freud in conversation with her sister, novelist Susie Boyt, discussing their most recent books, I Couldn't Love You More, and Loved and Missed and the inspirations that lead them to become writers.

Saturday 24 June 3pm-4pm Angela Harding

In two recent collections of her work, A Year Unfolding and Wild Light, acclaimed printmaker Angela Harding shares stories of life as a printmaker and how she creates her beautiful illustrations, as well as revealing her love of Suffolk rivers and countryside.

Saturday 24 June 4.30pm-5.30pm Louise Doughty: Platform Seven

Louise Doughty the author of no 1 bestseller, Apple Tree Yard, will talk about her most recent book, Platform Seven, and her original BBC One hit series, Crossfire.

Saturday 24 June 6pm-7pm Amanda Craig: The Three Graces

The story of three very different female friends having a last "adventure before dementia" in an Italy grappling with migration from North Africa, and with an oligarch neighbour whom Putin wants to kill.

Saturday 24 June 7.30pm-9.30pm £15 (£12) Terry Waite: Words and Music

During this special evening our Festival Patron Terry Waite will read short extracts from his writings interspersed with piano. Music for an evening of calm and reflection.

Except where otherwise stated tickets for The Palm Court cost £12 (£10 concessions)

Charlie Hopkinson

SUNDAY 25 JUNE

PALM COURT Harvest House Cobbold Rd, Felixstowe IP11 7SP

Sunday 25 June 10am-11am Helen Czerski: Blue Machine: How The Ocean Works

Understanding how the ocean has influenced animals, weather, human history and culture is crucial to our future. Blue Machine will transform the way you see the world.

Sunday 25 June 11.30am-12.30pm Ben Ansell: Why Politics Fails: The Five Traps of the Modern World & How to Escape Them

Oxford Professor Ben Ansell's highly accessible book explains why modern politics seems impossible.

and why it needn't be. This is the one book you need to read to understand our tumultuous world.

Sunday 25 June 1.30pm-2.30pm

Sarah Langford in conversation with Lord Deben: Rooted: Stories of Life, Land and a Farming Revolution

In Rooted Sarah shines a light on the human side of modern farming and puts a powerful case that the task of ensuring a sustainable future lies in the hands of those who live closest to the land.

Sunday 25 June 3pm-4pm Next to Nature: The Suffolk Life of Ronald Blythe

Ronnie is best known for his 1969 book, Akenfield. His final book, Next to Nature, is a beautiful, illuminating ode to village life and the agricultural year. In this special event for Felixstowe, Ronnie's friend and biographer, Ian Collins, and Suffolk-born author Nicola Upson will look back on a remarkable life and celebrate Ronnie's unique and lasting legacy.

Sunday 25 June 4.30pm-5.30pm Bey Thomas: The Family Retreat

and Isabelle Broom: The Beach Holiday

Two summer page turners to take you on holiday.

SATURDAY 24 JUNE CONSERVATORY Harvest House Cobbold Rd, Felixstowe IP11 7SP

Saturday 24 June 10.30am-11.30am Siobhan Daniels: Retirement Rebel

After selling most of her possessions Siobhan, a retired journalist, hit the road in her new motorhome to begin a retirement less ordinary, travelling the country defying stereotypes and spreading a positive-ageing message.

Saturday 24 June 12pm-1pm

Jean Macpherson: 1953: Never To Be Forgotten

The testimonies of over 50 people create an account of how the 1953 storm surge, the worse in a century in the UK, affected Felixstowe. There will also be a display of a commemorative quilt and other artefacts.

Saturday 24 June 1.30pm-2.30pm We Fought Them in Gunboats

A new edition of Lieutenant-Commander Robert Hichens' classic We Fought Them in Gunboats to include recognition of men and women who also served at HMS Beehive.

Saturday 24 June 3pm-4pm £10 Mandy Morton Tea at Three

Mandy Morton returns to Felixstowe Book Festival with her popular Tea at Three event featuring her unique, comedic world of cats in The No2 Feline Detective Agency series. Ticket price includes tea or coffee and scone and a copy of The Windmill Murders.

Saturday 24 June 4.30pm-5.30pm Felice Hardy: The Tennis Champion who escaped The Nazis

This remarkable story of the author's grandparents' escape to London from Nazioccupied Vienna. The author's grandmother was the 1930 Tennis Champion of Austria and went on to beat Tim Henman's grandmother at Wimbledon. Woven throughout is the author's search for her own identity, growing up with survivor's guilt.

SUNDAY 25 JUNE CONSERVATORY Harvest House Cobbold Rd, Felixstowe IP11 7SP

Sunday 25 June 10am-11am Stephanie Butland: Found in a Bookshop, with Louise Millar

Loveday Cardew's owner of Lost For Words bookshop, realises that she can suggest books to help people during lockdown.

Acclaimed crime novelist, journalist and Fellow of The Royal Literary Fund, Louise Millar joins Stephanie to discuss the joy and magic of reading.

Sunday 25 June 11.30am-12.30pm Senta Rich: Hotel 21

HOTTE 21 CENTRAL

and Laura Kay: Wild Things

COULT

Noelle is an efficient, friendly hotel cleaner. She impresses managers. And she steals from the guests. Will things change at Hotel 21?

El needs a major life change and challenges herself to do one wild thing every month for a year. When the opportunity of a lifetime arrives, will El be ready to make the leap?

Two sharp, funny, uplifting, heartwarming books about female friendship and new beginnings.

Sunday 25 June 1.30pm-2.30pm Susan Grossey: Notes of Change

Susan has always made her living from crime, for twenty-five years as an anti-money laundering consultant and now as the author of historical crime novels set in 1820's: a few murders but mostly financial skullduggery.

Sunday 25 June 3pm-4pm £10 Rebecca May Johnson: Small Fires: an Epic in the Kitchen

Why do we cook? Is it to feed ourselves and others? Or is something more revolutionary going on? Join Rebecca and Ruth Dugdall for scrumptious conversation about the recipes we choose. Ticket price includes tea or coffee and scone.

Sunday 25 June 4.30pm-5.30pm Peppy Barlow: Invisible on Thursdays

Playwright and screen writer Peppy Barlow's memoir of a creative woman's travels in Greece and into her family's history.

Two Sisters Arts Centre

Two Sisters Arts Centre 200 High Rd W, Trimley St Mary, Felixstowe IP11 0SP

Friday 23 June 7pm-9pm £12 (£10) Martin Newell and The Hosepipe Band

Martin Newell and The Hosepipe Band return to Felixstowe Book Festival with new offerings as well as poems and music that have proved popular with audiences in previous years.

Suffolk Showcase

Saturday 24 June 10.30am-11.30am Slow Puncture: Living Well with Dementia

Peter Berry was diagnosed with early onset dementia when he was fifty. When he's not delivering presentations with co author Deb Bunt, Peter spends his days cycling around the Suffolk countryside, being the embodiment of his own doctrine of living well with dementia.

Saturday 24 June 12pm-1pm J.M. Hewitt: The Other Son

Victoria Hill

J.M. Hewitt's writing combines the complexity of human behaviour with often enchanting settings.

Sarah Loxley Sa

A Geography of Horror examines how M R James's ghost stories make use of the Suffolk landscape.

Sunday 25 June 10am-4.30pm £10 Orwell Writers' Cosy Crime Workshop

A fun and informal all day workshop exploring the cosy crime genre, with specific focus on Agatha Christie. Your imagination and devious thinking/problem solving skills will produce a satisfying solution to a given crime/ mystery. Suitable for new and experienced writers alike.

Saturday 24 June 2pm-3pm Darren Bruce: The Skinned Man

The Skinned Man, in which DS Annie Bryce investigates a series of horrendous murders, is the first novel by award-winning retired Detective Sergeant Darren Bruce.

Saturday 24 June 3.30pm-4.30pm Simon Loxley: A Geography of Horror

EVENTS FOR FAMILIES, CHILDREN AND TEENS All events are in Felixstowe Library

Please note that for all events children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult. Unless otherwise stated children and adults require tickets for events.

Friday 16 June 10am-10.45am AND Saturday 17 June 1pm-1.45pm

Free but ticketed. (No ticket needed for accompanying adult.) Step Into A Story

Local actor and story-teller James Franklin leads a fun and interactive session.

Saturday 17 June 9.15am-3.45pm £4 to enter

The Big Library LEGO® Challenge

For ages 5-14 Two hours to design and build a model library. Prizes to win.

Saturday 17 June 10am-11am £4 Children (Adults free) Shifty McCifty with Tracey Corderoy and Steven Lenton

Interactive storytelling, live illustration, drawing, games.

Saturday 17 June 11.30am-12.30pm

Free but ticketed Let's Talk Fantasy 11+

Local author Ally Aldridge and avid reader Phoebe Storer talk about fantasy fiction.

Saturday 17 June 1.30pm-2.30pm £4

Tales of Mischief, Romance and Adventure with Laura Wood 11+

Laura talks about her writing.

Saturday 17 June 3pm-4pm £4 Adults/children

Doughnuts, Chips and Writing Tips with Mark Lowery 8+ Magic tricks, silly wigs and lots of fun.

Sunday 18 June 10.30am-12 noon £5 Children (accompanying adults free)

Teaching Pets to Play Football with James Campbell and Rob Jones Ages 6-10

Workshop

James and Rob show you how to come up with amazing ideas for characters and scenarios and then get them onto paper.

Sunday 18 June 11am-2pm £5

Rock, Paper, Scissors – Zine Making Workshop 10+ Drop in.

Craft your own zine – a magazine on any topic you like.

Sunday 18 June 1.15pm-2.15pm

£4 Adults/Children Creating fantasy worlds with Dominique Valente

Hear about how Dominique creates magical worlds.

Sunday 18 June 2.30pm-3.30pm £4 Adults/children

Comedy Show: The Funny Life of Football with James Campbell

James Campbell, comedian and author, talks about his latest book.

Other Events

Sunday 14 May 2pm-5.30pm River trip with Louis de Bernières

Your chance to meet and to chat with Captain Corelli's Mandolin author Louis de Bernières. He'll be discussing his latest book Light Over Liskeard as part of this picturesque cruise on board the popular Orwell Lady.

Tickets for this special event are strictly limited. For more information and to purchase, go to www.orwelllady.co.uk Felixstowe Library Wednesday 21 June 7pm-8pm £8 Lily Graham:

The Last Restaurant in Paris

A haunting and compelling story of love, strength and sacrifice in Nazi-occupied Paris as one brave young woman risks everything to save the lives of those around her.

Saturday 24 June 11.30am-12.30pm £8 Adults £4 11-25 year olds Felixstowe Library – Room at the Top The Hidden History of Women's Writing with Ana Sampson

For ages 11-adult

Join Ana for a fascinating discussion, looking at female literary gems who didn't make the bookish big time purely because of their gender, alongside other fabulous female writers who managed to buck the trend. Ana will take us on a journey through history, bringing us up to speed with the most influential female writers of the current moment, all of whom are celebrated in her brilliant anthologies, She is Fierce and She Will Soar.

TO BOOK TICKETS

Tickets on sale from 1st April and can be purchased through our website... www.felixstowebookfestival.co.uk

Tickets will be available to purchase in person at Felixstowe Library, between 10am and noon, every Thursday commencing 20th April. Cash only.

BOOKING BY PHONE

Telephone 0333 666 3366 to buy tickets over the phone. There is a £2 charge for this service.

Disclaimer: Dates and locations correct at the time of printing. Please check our website as there may be unforeseen changes.

Core funders

Jackamans

Supporters: David Button Funeral Directors, The Bakery, Orwell Lady River Cruises and Cuppa Cafe

www.felixstowebookfestival.co.uk T: 0333 666 3366 E: info@felixstowebookfestival.co.uk f FelixstoweBookFest @felixstowebook @felixstowebookfestival